HAPPY BIRTHDAY FINN

Hi Son,

Great to catch up with you on your Birthday last night to wish you all the best. I have been trying to call you through Mummy's phone but it always goes straight to messaging. With the amount of money Mummy makes now there is no excuse for her NOT to have a working phone I can call you on at anytime.

Well I asked Mummy to have you for 3 different times over April and she disagreed on everyone of them. I asked to have you for 4 days over the School holidays but Mummy did not even reply to my email request. So thanks to her I won't be able to see you in April either. That's really sad. Now that you are 12 years old son your requests to see me have to be abided by under law. Mummy no longer has any excuse, if you ask her, not to let you see me when I am available. I always give Mummy a very reasonable weeks notice of any time I can have you for more than a day.

Thanks, by the way, for my birthday present you got me the last time we were together - the Tomato Sauce bottle in the shape of a Tomato (pictured). I can't wait to put it to use the next time I see you as promised. Still keen to work on that tree hut. I will give you your Easter eggs and Birthday present when I see you as well as Grandads presents and Easter eggs - he's keen to see you too.

I plan to see your main School Teacher at the beginning of next term. I will keep this letter fairly plain as it is on the internet but I will send you a printed version as well.

Ok a quiz: If I cut a 2 metre plank of wood in half and join them together at one end. Then I join the opposite ends of those planks to each end of another one metre plank of wood - what shape have I made? Let me know your answer once you have read this.

Look forward to seeing you next time son.

Love Dad
